HAPPY YEAR

LICENSE VERIFICATIONS AVAILABLE ON THE INTERNET

The Board receives tens of thousands of requests monthly for licensees' and registrants addresses (along with other public-record information) from consumers, hospitals, the media, insurance companies, etc. Under California law, the Board must disclose the address of record of its licensees to the public (Civil Code Section 1798.61(a); Business and Professions Code section 27).

Earlier this year the Board made its public-record licensing and disciplinary information available on the Internet as mandated by SB 492, Rosenthal. In June 1999, a letter was sent to all licensees and registrants informing them of the mandate. This issue raised concern among licensees and registrants, especially those who use their home address as their "Address of Record." To accommodate those who wish to change their address of record, the Board temporarily blocked the address from appearing on the Internet site.

Because of the number of address changes received, it is estimated that the changes will not be completed until the beginning of 2000. The Board will post the address of record for all licensees and registrants on the Internet once the address changes have been processed.

In a 1998 Superior court decision involving the Medical Board of California, the Judge found that under California law the address of record for a physician is public record. Any change to the existing law governing the release of public information by the Board must be done through legislation.

NEW DCA DIRECTOR APPOINTED

On January 27, 1999, Governor Gray Davis appointed Kathleen Hamilton Director of the Department of Consumer Affairs. Ms. Hamilton previously served as deputy chief of staff and senior advisor to then Lieutenant Governor Gray Davis and as chief consultant to then Assembly Majority Leader Antonio Villaraigosa.

Ms. Hamilton was also head of the California Health Facilities Financing Authority under former State Treasurer Kathleen Brown. As an appointee, Ms. Hamilton established the State Treasurer's "CARE" Task Force to ensure compliance with public accessibility obligations of publicly financed health facilities.

BBS YESTERDAY AND TOMORROW

BY: SHERRY MEHL, EXECUTIVE OFFICER

The State of California has established standards for the practice of Marriage and Family Therapists, Licensed Clinical Social Workers, and Licensed Educational Psychologists. These standards are intended to safeguard the public's health, safety, and welfare. The mission of the Board of Behavioral Sciences is to protect the consumer by establishing and maintaining standards for competent and ethical behavior by the professionals under its jurisdiction.

For the past five years, the Board has made major efforts to realign the laws and regulations so they are more easily understood and to streamline processing times for applications. The Board has completed work on the backlog of enforcement cases and has greatly increased communication between consumers, licensees, professional associations, and educational institutions.

With the onset of the new millenium, the Board looks forward to increasing public involvement in the process by encouraging stakeholders to take a more active role in its statewide meetings. The information regarding the meetings is posted on the Internet, and notices are provided to a wide list of interested parties. The board has designed a position to work with schools who offer degrees acceptable to the Board and to bring increased awareness of the Board and its activities.

The examinations administered by the Board are a primary means of ensuring public safety. The Board will be taking extra steps to evaluate and strengthen the criteria for selecting subject matter experts and examiners to ensure quality and enhance performance. Exploration of new ideas and testing methods will be the focus of the examination unit.

The Board's staff plays a significant role in enforcement. Now that the citation and fine program was implemented this year, the Board will be looking at expanding the role and significance of probation monitoring to facilitate the oversight of licensees and registrants who have been placed on probation.

The improvement of the Board's office technology includes new computers and equipment to assist staff with improved efficiency. The Board's website which received over 240,000 hits in 1999, continues to be a major source of information. The Board is in the process of changing the site to be more user-friendly with increased speed and efficiency of use. The design should be completed by the first of the year.

The Mission of the Board is to protect the consumer by establishing and maintaining standards for competent and ethical behavior by the professionals under its jurisdiction.

REGULATION UPDATE

The Board's regulation sections are contained in the California Code of Regulations, Title 16, Division 18, Articles 1-10.

Applications - This regulation seeks to amend section 1805 to clarify the Board's necessity to set final filing dates for examinations and to define the circumstances by which an application would be abandoned for failure to comply with the set final filing date. The final regulation package was filed with the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) in October 1999.

Course Instructor Qualifications - This regulation became effective September 16, 1999, and amends section 1887.10 to require any instructor who holds a healing arts license to notify all approved continuing education providers of any discipline on the license in California or in any other state or territory during the period of license restriction.

Fees - These regulations became effective January 8, 1999. They amend sections 1816, 1816.1, and 1816.2, and adopt sections 1816.3, 1816.4, 1816.5, 1816.6, and 1816.7. These regulations identify various fees collected by the Board.

Requirements for Supervisors of Associate Clinical Social Workers - This regulation became effective May 10, 1999, and adopts section 1870 to make specific those requirements to be met by a licensed individual to qualify as a supervisor, clarify the supervisor's responsibilities to the supervisee, and clarify the methods by which supervision is to be performed.

Supervisory Plan - This emergency regulation became effective January 1, 1999, and adopts section 1870.1 to provide clarity to the requirements for completing the "Supervisory Plan" form. The Board filed the Certificate of Compliance with the Office of Administrative Law on April 6, 1999, and became effective May 11, 1999.

Supervision Training - This regulation became effective February 21, 1999. Section 1833.1 was amended to require, beginning January 1, 2000, supervisors who are licensed by the Board to complete a minimum of six hours of supervision training every two years.

LEGISLATIVE CHANGES IN 1999

Senate Bill 2238, legislation by the Committee on Business and Professions, became effective January 1, 1999. This legislation made several amendments and additions to the Business and Professions Code statutes that relate to marriage, family, and child counselors, licensed clinical social workers, and licensed educational psychologists:

Qualifications for MFT Licensure - Amended section 4980.40 to change the name from the Council of Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education to the Bureau of Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education.

Out of State Applicant Qualifications - Amended sections 4980.80 and 4980.90 to require out-of-state MFT applicants to obtain instruction in spousal or partner abuse assessment, detection, and intervention.

Fees - Added wording to Chapters 13 and 14 authorizing the Board to establish fee amounts at or below the amount currently stated in law.

Denial of Application or Suspension or Revocation of License - Amended sections 4982.25, 4986.70, and 4992.36 to define unprofessional conduct to include denial of licensure, revocation, suspension, restriction, or any other disciplinary action imposed by another state or territory or possession of the United States, or by any other governmental agency.

Examination Fees - Amended sections 4984.7, 4986.80, and 4996.3 to allow an applicant to pay the application and written examination fee and, after passing the written examination, to pay the oral examination fee.

Reexamination - Amended sections 4984.7, 4986.80, and 4996.4 to clarify the one-year requirement for participation in an examination and to specify what is needed to re-apply after one year.

Restoration of Delinquent License - Amended section 4996.6 to add a five-year timeframe for cancellation of the LCSW license and specify what is needed to re-apply for licensure.

Display of License - Adopted sections 4980.31 and 4986.4, and amended section 4996.7 to require licensees to display their license in a conspicuous place in their primary place of business.

The following legislation becomes effective January 1, 2000:

AB 1677 (Assembly Consumer Protection, Governmental Efficiency & Economic Development) - This legislation makes several amendments and additions to the laws governing marriage and family therapists, licensed clinical social workers, and licensed educational psychologists. The amendments to the Business and Professions Code include:

- ◆ Corporations - Amends sections 4987, 4987.6 4987.7, 4987.8, 4987.9, 4988.1, 4988.2, 4998, 4998.1, 4998.2, 4998.3, 4998.4, 4998.5, 4998.6, and 4998.7 to repeal the Board's authority to register corporations.
- ◆ Employment of Interns - Amends section 4980.45 to take out the reference to the Board's Corporation Law.

- ◆ Name Change Notification and Documentation - Adopts sections 4984.9 and 4992.8 to require that a licensee or registrant notify the Board within 30 days of a name change and provide legal documentation of the change.
- ◆ Display of Current Renewal - Amends section 4996.8 to take out the word "annual."

RECORDKEEPING LEGISLATION

Legislation enacted January 1, 2000 will require licensees to keep records consistent with sound clinical judgment, the standards of the professions, and the nature of the services being rendered. Business and Professions Code Sections 4982, 4986.70, and 4992.3 were amended to expand the definition of unprofessional conduct to include failure to keep the required records.

OTHER BILLS OF INTEREST TO THE BOARD

The following legislation becomes effective January 1, 2000:

AB 253 (Thomson) - Amends section 4980.41 to require applicants for MFT licensure, who begin graduate study on or after January 1, 2001, to complete a two-semester or three-quarter unit course in psychological testing and a two-semester or three-quarter unit course in psychopharmacology.

AB 352 (Thomson) - Requires the Board to create and maintain a central file of all registrants and licensees and to include disciplinary information. Also, MFT and LCSW professional associations will be required to report their peer review findings to the Board.

SB 433 (Johnson) - Authorizes the court to appoint a child custody evaluator in any contested proceeding involving child custody or visitation where the court determines it is in the best interest of the child and would require court-connected and private child custody evaluators to complete domestic violence training and comply with other requirements. It requires that the Judicial Council formulate a statewide rule of court by January 1, 2002, that establishes education, experience, and training requirements for all child custody evaluators. Also, this bill requires, on and after January 1, 2005, except under specific circumstances, that each child custody evaluator be a licensed physician who is a board certified psychiatrist, or a psychologist, a marriage and family therapist, a clinical social worker, or a court-connected evaluator, as specified, or be proposed by or stipulated to by the parties and consented to by the court.

SB 809 (O'Connell) - Establishes a statute of limitations for accusations brought against a licensee. It requires that an accusation brought against a licensee, pursuant to a specific provision of the Government Code, be filed within three years from the date the Board discovers the alleged act or omission that is the basis for disciplinary action, or within seven years from the date the alleged act or omission that is the basis for disciplinary action occurred, whichever occurs first subject to certain tolling provisions. This bill would apply to all accusations filed on or after January 1, 2000.

PENDING LEGISLATION

SB 125 (Haynes) - This bill would prohibit the Board from utilizing any type of oral examination as a condition of licensure as an MFT or LCSW and require that the Board use a specific national written examination for LCSW licensure. Senator Haynes introduced similar language in the 1997-1998 Legislative Session (SB 288), but the bill failed to pass the Assembly Consumer Protection Committee. This bill was introduced in December 1998 and was not heard in the 1999 session. It now becomes a two-year bill.

LICENSE RENEWAL INFO

The continuing education requirement became effective for MFTs and LCSWs renewing their license in 1999. If your license expires in 1999, you will need 18 hours of continuing education at the time of renewal to continue practicing. Licensees renewing in 2000 and after will need 36 hours of continuing education. You do not need to submit proof of continuing education with your renewal application.

In addition, effective January 1, 1999, licensees not currently practicing may apply for and receive an inactive license, pay a lesser fee, and not be required to comply with the continuing education requirement until such time as they wish to reactivate their license and commence practicing. Inactive licensees will still need to renew their license every two years and pay the inactive renewal fee.

If you wish to place your license on inactive status, you will need to submit the required inactive renewal fee and complete the Active/Inactive License Form. However, if the fee and form are not postmarked by the expiration date, you will need to pay for both the active license renewal and delinquency fee (i.e., $195 for MFTs, $150 for LCSWs, $120 for LEPs).

Starting January 1, 1999, an LCSW license that is not renewed within five years after its expiration date will be canceled. This is the same requirement for MFTs and LEPs. This change in statute is not retroactive and affects those licenses that expired after January 1, 1999. Canceled licensees who wish to be licensed again must reapply, meet all current requirements, and pass the licensing examinations.

	MFT	LCSW	LEP
CE Required	Yes	Yes	No
Renewal Fee	$130	$100	$80
Delinquent Fee	$65	$50	$40
Inactive Renewal Fee	$65	$50	$40

LICENSE RENEWAL - 30-DAY GRACE PERIOD ELIMINATED

The 30-day delinquency fee grace period was eliminated for all licenses renewing after January 1, 1999. The license expires at midnight on the last day of the birth month. The former 30-day grace period applied only to the delinquency fee, not to extending the licensee's practice rights beyond the license expiration date.

If the license renewal is not postmarked on or before the license expiration date, practice rights will cease and the delinquency fee will be due.

MFCC TO MFT

Effective July 1999, the Marriage, Family, and Child Counselor title was renamed Marriage and Family Therapist. Section 4980.08 of the Business and Professions Code provides that any reference in any statute or regulation to "licensed marriage, family and child counselor" or "marriage, family and child counselor" shall be deemed a reference to "licensed marriage and family therapist" or "marriage and family therapist."

The new license title is being reflected on renewal licenses issued AFTER July 1, 1999. Existing licensees do not need to replace their wall license to reflect the new license title. This change in title does not preclude licensees from continuing to refer to themselves as MFCCs, nor does it amend applicable statutes or regulations to change the existing words to read "marriage and family therapist."

Did You Know...

- ◆ A licensee who practices with an expired or inactive license is in violation of law, which constitutes cause for enforcement action.
- ◆ A licensee's status and address of record is public information.
- ◆ A licensee is not entitled to payment by a client or an insurer for services performed if the license is expired or inactive.
- ◆ MFTs and LCSWs: If you supervise while your license is expired or inactive, the hours accrued by an Intern or Associate will not count toward the licensing requirements.

MFT AND LCSW SUPERVISOR FAQs

These frequently asked questions (FAQs) are for Licensed Marriage and Family Therapists (MFTs) and Licensed Clinical Social Workers (LCSWs) who supervise either MFT Interns (Interns), LCSW Associates (Associates) or both.

1. I supervise Interns. How many hours of supervisor training am I required to obtain?

Effective January 1, 2000, you will need to have completed within 60 days of commencement of supervision a minimum of 6 hours of supervision training or coursework. Thereafter, you will need this training every two years. This training may apply towards the continuing education requirement.

2. I supervise Associates. How many hours of supervision training am I required to obtain?

Effective January 1, 2001, you will need to have completed 15 contact hours in supervision training obtained from a state agency or approved continuing education provider. This training may apply towards the continuing education requirements.

3. I supervise Interns and Associates. Will I need both 6 and 15 hours of supervision training for Associates?

No. You are only required to obtain 15 contact hours in supervision training. The 6 hours required for supervising Interns can be included in the 15 hours. However, if you continue to supervise Interns you will need 6 hour of training every two years.

4. Will I be required to submit proof of completion of this training?

No. However, upon written request of the board, the supervisor shall provide to the board any documentation that verifies the supervisor's compliance with the requirements.

5. Supervisors of Interns: Can coursework taken prior to January 1, 2000, count?

Yes. Coursework completed between January 1, 1997, and December 31, 1999 may apply.

6. Supervisors of Associates: Can coursework taken prior to January 1, 2001, count?

Yes, Coursework completed after January 1, 1999, may apply.

CHANGES TO ASW EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS

Senate Bill 1983 (Chapter 589) brings many changes to the supervised experience requirements for associate clinical social workers. It adds Business and Professions Code section 4996.21 and affects applicants who apply for registration on and after January 1, 1999. If you are issued an associate registration on or before December 31, 1998, this new section does not apply to you.

The new law does not redefine the types of services performed or what qualifies as supervision. However, it does require registrants to accrue a minimum of 2,000 hours in psychosocial diagnosis, assessment, and treatment, including psychotherapy and counseling. In addition, registrants may obtain a maximum of 1,200 hours in client-centered advocacy, consultation, evaluation, and research.

Along with the minimum/maximum requirements, registrants will be required to receive at least one hour of direct supervisor contact for every 10 hours of client contact in each setting where experience is gained. That is, the associate must be able to show at least one hour of individual supervision or two hours of group supervision for every 10 hours of direct client contact. This ratio is not averaged over a one-week period, but is averaged over the duration of the setting.

A supervisory plan must also be developed to describe the goals and objectives of supervision. These goals will include the ongoing assessment of strengths and limitations and the assurance of practice in accordance with the laws and regulations. This supervisory plan must be submitted by the registrant to the Board within 30 days of commencement of supervision.

At the end of supervision, the supervisor will be responsible to submit evidence that the registrant has satisfactorily completed the supervised experience. The supervisor will submit this evidence to the Board within 30 days of termination of the supervision.

If you have questions regarding the new law, please contact Racquel Pena or Gordon Redoble at the Board office at (916) 445-4933, extensions 1030 and 1005, or send an e-mail to BBSWebMaster@bbs.ca.gov.

ORAL EXAMINATION FEES

Effective January 1, 1999, MFT and LCSW applicants now pay for the oral examination once they have successfully passed the written examination.

The MFT application fee is $200.00. This fee consists of $100.00 for the application processing fee and $100.00 for the written examination fee.*

The LCSW application fee is $200.00. This fee consists of $100.00 for the application processing fee and $100.00 for the written examination fee.*

Once applicants pass the written examination, they will receive the application for the oral examination. At that time, the $200.00 oral examination fee must be included with the application when it is submitted to the Board office.

REVISED APPLICATION

The Board has revised the application for Marriage and Family Therapist and Licensed Clinical Social Worker licensure. The new application format has been streamlined for your benefit. The current application fee is $200.00 which consists of $100.00 for application processing and $100.00 for the written examination. If the application you are completing does not reflect the new fees, you should contact the Board office to request the revised application. Note: the address you indicate on the application is the address of record used when you are licensed. This is public information and is released to the public upon request.
